PLEASE BE MINDFUL WHEN BOOKING:

- Starla lives in the Eastern Time Zone- so flexibility may be required when booking international consultations.
- Starla's native language is English. If you feel that there may be an extreme language barrier, please include this information in your application so we can work toward a communication solution for your consultation. 😊
- Though Starla loves you dearly- She is not a counselor. Venting is absolutely okay BUT please understand that these consultations are meant for genuine business dilemmas. Venting can be included but should not be the primary purpose of booking the consultation.
- Starla believes in tough-love and will not sugar-coat your session. Please understand that the advice she gives may not necessarily be the advice you wanted to hear- but the advice she believes you NEED to hear in order to bounce back and be the best Alpha you can be.
